The agenda was handed out and those items were discussed.

Russ Roskens, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the slate of officers to serve for the 2012 term. With no nominations from the floor, the submitted slate was passed unanimously from the attending members. The new board consists of :

Bob Altomondo, President
Connie Courier, Vice President
John Courier, Treasurer
Liz Anderson, Secretary

It was also decided and voted on to not have a Holiday Party this year and use the resources for upcoming tournaments. A tournament committee, headed up by John Carrier included Larry Feinman and Dave Soifer. Their specific function will be to assign levels of play (rating system) and assign handicaps for each paid member who is going to participate in this year's tournaments.

Treasurers report: John Carrier reported that we have $226.00 in the treasury and is not counting the dues that are being paid at the meeting.

Secretary report: There was no report due to the Secretary was not in attendance.

There was also a motion to create a 'rules committee' which will be headed up by Sal Luca with the Ken Resnick helping with input when necessary.

A motion was carried to continue with the website which will cost the club $72 for the year. Bob Altomondo will continue to provide the updating and maintenance of said website.

Member Sal Luca wanted to know if there was a set of words being restricted during play or towards another player. Bob Altomondo stated that there is a 'code of conduct' which overrides any abnormal or intimidating behavior towards a fellow member and the board has the right to ban that member from the club.

A motion was made and passed to adjourn at 1:00 pm
